SUPERINTENDENT JOHN J. CRABB

The time has come to say good-bye. It truly has been a pleasure to work with you. It will be a greater pleasure for me to watch you take your place in society, and make your mark in the world. I know that Central Valley High School will have many occasions to be proud to say that you once belonged to this school.

Cordially yours,

JOHN J. CRABB.

John J. Crabb

PRINCIPAL SIG HANSEN

Tools are of utmost importance in mankind's progress. Tools of all kinds are tools but the most important tool used by mankind is a trained mind. You have had the opportunity to secure a theoretically trained mind. Now you will have an opportunity to combine theory and practice to the betterment of yourself and your community.

—SIG HANSEN.

VICE-PRINCIPAL BRIAN SIENKNECHT

The accomplishments terminated with your diplomas should give you the courage and confidence to succeed in your endeavors chosen or otherwise. Choose wisely and persevere relentlessly in that choice.

—BRIAN SIENKNECHT.

Best of luck,

FACULTY

The faculty. What an inexpressive word for all these people. Each one is different in his own way, yet they're all termed the same and tabbed simply, "teachers." They're a swell bunch, and under their expert guidance we've learned a lot, in textbooks and out.

Back row—John Crabb, Jack Thacker, Walter Thomas, William Beard, George Derr.

2nd row—Ann Langston, Marcella Smith, Sylvia Eastburn, Priscilla Ross, Leah Dickinson, Cynthia Plowman, Earl Dalquist.

3rd row—Delia Whitman, Irma Bannen, Gertrude Glover, Gladys Graupner, Dorothy Puryear, Lois Cain.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council consists of one representative from each home room plus the Student Body officers and two advisors, Mr. Sienknecht and Mr. Hansen.

This group has the all important job of executing the school's laws and regulating its affairs.

A. S. B. OFFICERS

The Student Body officers have been working hand in hand with the faculty in "laying down the law."

Bob Richardson, Bob Payne, Beverly Sullivan and Mary Kimmel were chosen by the student body in the most enthusiastic election Central Valley has had in years.

Bob's first official act was naming Dwain Gibson, parliamentarian and Colleen Dial, program chairman.

These officers have done a fine job since they took office in February.

Back row—Beverly Sullivan, secretary-treasurer; Mary Frances Kimmel, reporter; Colleen Dial, program chairman.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Having spent four enjoyable years at Central Valley, many of us are going to miss its familiar scene.

As freshmen we meekly roamed the halls; the year of '49 seemed remote. After surviving the initiation, we soon became more sure of ourselves.

The main events of our Sophomore year were the initiation of the Freshmen and the Sophomore-Freshman party. Outstanding members of the year were: Cecil Cleveland and Eddy Ranniger, participating in football and track events; Laura Smith and Mary Thomas, who were made members of the Honor Society.

Our Junior year found us busy planning the Junior Prom. Our efforts were rewarded by the support and enthusiasm of the student body. Added to our members in the Honor Society were: Norma Abbott, Jo Ann Ruark, Joan Morrison, Ellen Wilson, and Carol Conrath. This same year Joan Morrison was elected president of the Honor Society. We chose Laura Smith as our Junior Annual Editor.

We have been busier than ever during our Senior year. The theme for the Senior Ball was Snowfall, and the hall was decorated on that idea. Our class officers this year were: Gust Kallas, president; Herbie McIntosh, vice-president; Jeanne Weeks, secretary; and Jerry Karstetter, treasurer. At the graduation ceremony the girls wore white gowns and caps, while the boys wore blue. Those chosen for the student body officers from our class were Cecil Cleveland, president; Eddy Ranniger, vice-president; Imogene Bartlett, secretary. Appointed officers were Jerry Karstetter, parliamentarian, and Jackie Burchell, program chairman.

As we leave C. V. we wish all the underclassmen "Good Luck."

SENIOR PROPHECY

Pete Baumann, Cecil Cleveland, and Gust Kallas manage an orphanage. We all expected this though, because of their special fondness for "Babes".

We see Willie Hall in Waukegan "studying" to replace Jack Benny. As if he'd have to study for that part.

Willie Maruch and Del Hartman are taking up a collection for the "Organization for the Revival of the Waltz."

The great actor, Ray Bryant, has almost worked himself to shreds as the leading man in the recent stage hit "Bambi". (He's a deer.)

Kenneth Farmer is raising potatoes in Mica.

Ellingson, Ellingson, and Kellmer, (EEK) have a mouse trap factory.

Howard Mahan and Alan James are partners in law. They specialize in criminal law. Howard pretends he's Sherlock Holmes and Alan pretends he's Dr. Watson. After that it's elementary.

Brecto, Cahill, and Dahl are running a garage. They keep the people running but the cars just won't move.

We see Jackie Burchell still going to West Valley's dances. (Ted hasn't graduated yet.—)

June Meigs is a gut tier in a racket factory. (Keeping everyone in splits.)

Paula Matson is running a nursery for pre-Gonzagans (Get um young)!

We see where the Bob Brunas are leaving for the Isle of Capri on an extended romantic honeymoon. Mrs. Bruna, the former Beverly Mohandro, has given up her career as bubble dancer at the Unique Theater.

In the Limelight we find Diane Moore who is the newly elected cell queen of Sing Sing. She will be crowned by the old queen, Evelyn Rooks.

Jean Stephens is running for Miss Flat Tire of '61 (We find that she is ineligible, however, because she recently married the big business tycoon, Alvin Almandinger).

Jackie Parkinson is attending the bar at Breezy Point. Her recent divorce from Walter Levine made her want to drown her sorrows.

Mary Lou Sampson has been reading the Bible lately and is still looking for Delila.

Ellen Wilson has been soaking up the profits in a diaper factory. She took up the work after years of sad experiences with her own family.

Jean Rorrison has been modeling for Powers (Washington Water Power). Her qualifications are perfect because of the water on her knees.

Mary Thomas and Laura Smith are still in Central Valley trying to sell to Miss Dickinson a 1949 annual.

Helen Northcutt has just been elected queen of a donkey rodeo. She was considered eligible because of her long ears.

Jo Ann Ruark, Donna Shaw, and Ann Syron are in a dance trio at the Unique Theater. Soon it will be reduced to a team of Ruark and Shaw since Miss Syron is marrying the manager, Frank Kraft.

LaVerne Sorenson is driving a garbage truck at Rockford. (She will pick up any dirt, for a price). The international establishment of Graff, Gribbin, and Green are buying her out. (They just pick up.)

Jeanne Weeks, Jeanne Folsom, and Johnie Woods are working on the quiz kids program (scrubbing floors and cleaning up before the program).

Richard Albertson has just developed a new theory of relativity. In a recent interview he said, "Einstein was absolutely wrong."

Latest word from Jerry Karstetter, whose voluntary seclusion in an igloo in northern Siberia, in order to finish his book, "How to Repel Women", startled the whole world, is that the last chapter No. CMXCIX, will come off the press as soon as he finishes his argument with his press agent, Delores Berg.

Joan Morrison and Edward Ranniger are currently starring in the last Talarico production, "Agog and A-twitter", best-seller by Darlene Fiegel.

Stanley Truman, Lester Wold, and Gerald Wright are partners in the firm, "T.W.W. and Sons". They are associated with the Street Cleaners Union.

John Matlack and wife, Norma Abbott have flown to China for their second honeymoon. There they will be joined by that famous dancing couple, Herbert McIntosh and Delores Grinstead who have billed all over Europe.

Barbara Halverson, the wife of the famous chemist, Roger Shaw, attended a book review of "Forever Amber" by Miss Imogene Bartlett. As yet Imogene hasn't caught a man but 36 isn't too old to get one.

...Jo Ann Greeves, the famous lady wrestler of old C. V. is slated to have a match with Nadine Geboe, the terror of Turnerville, Texas.

It is leap year and Marie Allen is determined to get a man this time. Last seen she was chasing Jim Rose over the Canadian Border.

Sally Boyd, Vernon Sale, and Paul Pope own the successful little shop, The "BSP Girdle Shoppe".

Professor Mellom has finally decided to take a wife. The lucky girl is Betty Anderson. The wedding will take place at the Strohmaier mansion. That famous star of screen and radio, Orpha Gray, will sing. Judge Don Taylor will officiate.

Barbara Ulrich is a great star in the Triber Bros. Circus. She walks through the air with the greatest of ease and if she falls she falls on her knees. (SLOGAN).

Margie Asbury, Republican candidate, and Rose Frederick, Democratic candidate, are running for president. There's also a third party, Ronald Perron. Now it's not a fight between parties but woman versus man.

The three "C's and a D", Jean Connelly, Carol Conrath, Floye Ann Cox, and Pauline Dial, were given a chance on Arthur Godfrey's program just recently. They have an act of singing and dancing under water.

Lyle Tanner has been exploring for freaks over Africa. He didn't find any freaks but he did see a former C. V. friend, Bob Stone, King of the Choo—you—eat—you tribe.

Dr. Raymon Stevig has just operated on Elaine Irwin for an acute appendicitis. His assitsing nurse is Gloria Johnson.

Les Miller, the owner of a used car lot, just sold a car to Leahfaye Brighton and Marian Bristol who claim they will be the first ones to drive to the Extreme North and then to the South.

Larry Pryor, noted to be the richest man in the Northwest, is seen giving hand-outs to the poor people. One of them is Charles Smith. Oh well, we can't all be lucky.

Jerry Leslie is still enrolled in Mr. Orcutt's class in U. S. History at C. V. We wish Jerry the best of luck.

This has really become a woman's world with Janet Harmon, Janice Hult, and Betty Morrow occupying seats in the U. S. Senate and Lorelle Humbert elected Queen of the Amazons.

Wayne Wright's arduous efforts at C. V. have finally been rewarded. He is taking a complete rest at Palm Springs where he expects to remain for six years to get "really rested."

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

As we entered our "Frosh" year, many of us could be seen in dresses and sweaters turned inside out, our hair in eight pigtails, two colors of stockings and other humorous attire. This is what the Sophomores did to us as initiation.

In our Sophomore year we held the Frosh-Sophomore party. We raised money for the Annual by selling popcorn and candy at games and by sponsoring dances. Many of our members were active on the basketball, football, and baseball teams.

This year the new members entered into Pep Club were: Beverly Sullivan, Jack Yats, Bob Payne, Gordon Mellom, and Patsy Linke. Our members chosen for Torch and Quill were Mary Frances Kimmel and Bill Clay.

Our biggest responsibility as Juniors was the Junior Prom. We also sponsored other dances to earn our Annual quota.

The class chose as officers: Bob Payne, president; Bob Richardson, vice-president; and Janet Blakely, secretary-treasurer. Student Council representatives were: Darlene Risdon, Colleen Dial, Gordon Mellom, and Glenn Mott. Darlene Risdon was elected to fill the position of Junior editor for the Annual.

And now for next year!

Latya luck

your future years at C.V. Hope you have as much fun
as I have had.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

As freshmen we were given the friendly welcome usually extended to frosh—initiation. We lived through it, though, and began an active year of sports and work for the school, including the classic burning of the eagle.

We began our Sophomore year with as much enthusiasm and pep as ever. With a lot of vigor we piled into our pleasant job of making the Frosh feel at home. Red was the prevalent color, and you could recognize a frosh anywhere in the halls by that slight smear of lipstick on his or her nose. Everyone had a nice time at the Frosh-Sophomore party where they enjoyed games, both old and new, old-fashioned dancing, a program of songs, dances, and skits, and, of course—food.

Jeanne Nelson generously donated a flag to the school for the Sophomore Class.

For our class officers we chose Orlyn Vigesaa as president and Jim Zophi as vice-president. Joyce Beck was our secretary and Carol Ingalls, our treasurer.

Mary Catherine Allen and Orlyn Vigesaa were taken into Pep Club and Jim Upchurch and Patsy Dahl were Student Council representatives. Marjie Fintel represented us in Girls' League. When Torch and Quill was reorganized the new members from our class were: Mary Catherine Allen, Anita Hurt, Carol Ingalls, Lavonne Olsen, Pat Smith, Loretta Tingley, and Carol Ann White.

At the Walla Walla football game we had the canteen and later on we sponsored other sales to raise our quota for the annual.

The Sophomore boys began to show the athletic ability which will make them outstanding in the sports of "50" and "51".

We have enjoyed our year as Sophomores and are looking forward to being upperclassmen next year.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

First of all, this year the Freshmen proved to the Student Body that they possessed good sportsmanship. Since the Sophomores were given only one day, they really gave the Freshmen an initiation. Afterwards, the Sophomores made amends at the Sophomore-Freshman party.

The class worked hard to raise money for their annual quota this year. We're glad to see the Freshmen taking more interest in school activities.

The class officers for the year were: Eli Chalich, president; Bob Ford, vice-president; Ann Johns, secretary, and Marceline Pope, treasurer.

After your grand entry, we wish you good luck throughout your school years ahead.

ACTIVITIES

Dear Ester,

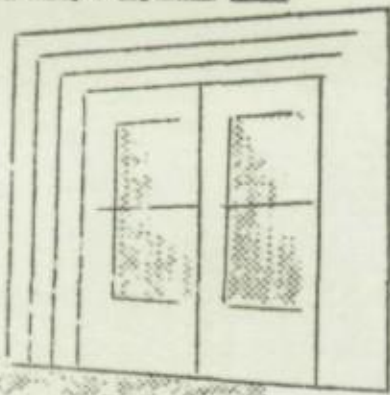

I now know a girl as dippy as I -
I am a very brainy girl so that's a compliment. (25¢ please) I don't think I'll ever forget those crazy noon hours we spent together. As I came running out of P.E. and you came dragging out of Typing. All you ever said was, "I'm 8 lessons behind."
And then when we marched together in the drill team. I was always out of line and you always knew it. Remember the stunt we had all planned only they didn't think it was nice (the one Penny did). I hope
I never miss another bus on the way out of Tennie's.

Love + Stuff.

BEAR TALES

The small but efficient staff, all cooperating with their capable editor, Barbara Ulrich and advisor, Mr. Sienknecht, has succeeded in making the "Bear Tales" an outstanding paper. The students very much enjoy reading the Feature Page, the News, the Sports, and last, but not least, the Jokes. We, the students of Central Valley, appreciate the time and hard work given by the staff to make this paper one we all enjoy.

PRESS CLUB

Four representatives are chosen by Mr. Sienknecht each year to represent Central Valley at the Spokane Junior Press Club. These students, members of the Journalism class who are interested in making journalism their life's work, interview many famous celebrities in addition to meeting Spokane's own newspaper men. Among its many activities are the "Teen-Agers Talk" column in the Chronicle and the weekly radio broadcast.

VOYAGEUR

The Voyageur Staff of '49 has tried to put out a good annual in spite of a rigid budget. Our efforts were brought to everyone's attention from time to time when we had pictures to take or money to raise. The blessings of every teacher have been ours when we have upset their schedules and skipped their classes. We are very grateful for their patience and help. To Mrs. Bannen and Mr. Beard, go our special thanks for all they have done as our advisors.

TWIRLERS

During the half-time of games the twirlers this year have done a wonderful job of entertaining the fans of Central Valley. They have three leaders: Barbara Halverson, Loretta Partridge, and Betty Krogness, who really have been outstanding performers. Janet Harmon, the substitute, took Barbara's place while she led the band during parades. The stunts this years have shown the progress the twirlers are making towards acquiring skill.

CHEERLEADERS

The system of cheerleading was changed this year. Instead of the usual three girls in blue we now have three girls and two boys in striking blue and white uniforms. During the football season, Willie Hall took Wayne Wright's place and did a very good job of filling in. With the cooperation of the student body these peppy and energetic yell leaders have helped bring our team to victory time after time. Central Valley is proud of Barbara Halverson, Jeanne Weeks, Penny Hughes, Jerry Karstetter, Willie Hall, and Wayne Wright.

"You did a swell job, Kids!"

The Bearettes is an organization of girls under the supervision of Miss Ross. The girls have regular meetings to plan and practice their stunts. Their president is Beverly Shaw and the secretary is Floy Ann Cox. They participate with the twirlers in many stunts given during the halves of games, and they also march in the parades. The girls lend a colorful air to the school and to the games when they wear their perky white sweaters and bright blue skirts.

Front row, left to right—J. Hayes, M. Sellinas, D. Howlett, M. Pope, F. Cox, B. Shaw, B. Huffman, C. Crabill, D. Anderson, V. Woods. Second row—L. Cleveland, A. Hurt, P. Smith, D. Carpenter, B. Brereton, B. Nelson, A. Hanches, S. Dahlen, R. Livingston, L. McCully, J. Stout, B. MacDonald, S. Boyd, J. Gibson. Third row—H. Hjort, B. Knudsen, M. Wampnor, M. Panther, D. Rowland, D. M. Alexander, M. Meiseger, M. K. Allen, E. Napier, J. Stewart, B. Carpenter, J. Carnine, C. Ingalls, B. Ziegler, P. Hughes, B. Cheney, J. Wyatt, J. Blakely, D. Hensel, G. McGill, M. Torrey, L. Wood.

Dear Editor, I've really enjoyed showing you our club and I see you a lot.

BAND

See that band in the blue coats and grey pants? Well, that's the northwest's best dressed band. And inside those unique uniforms is one of the west's most notable playing bands.

Each year the band draws attention to its Mid-winter and Spring Concerts. Every home game is boosted by the band's playing and the half-time show put on with the Drill Team and Twirlers.

CHORUS

This has been a very active year for the girls in the Chorus. Under the direction of Miss Gladys Graupner, they sang at the Band Concert, our Christmas Play, "The Hope of the World," the Mother's Tea, Baccalaureate, and Student Body programs.

Last January they were asked by Phil Crosbie to sing on his radio program. During the spring they went to Cheney to compete with other schools and to bring back some more laurels for Central Valley.

Back row—J. Connelly, B. Bolling, B. McDonald, P. Dahl, F. A. Cox, S. Rademacher, J. Boyd, Miss Graupner, J. Leslie, J. Conrath, J. Nelson, G. Becker, B. Peterson, B. Rothrock, G. McGill.

NATIONAL THESPIANS

Hindered somewhat this year by a lack of members, but with twenty-three stars entering this spring, the Thespians should really make a showing next fall. Officers this year were: Bob Bruna, president; Joan Morrison, vice-president; Nadine Geboe, secretary-treasurer.

Back row—Ronny Mellom, Teddy Williams, Gust Kallas, Howard Mahan, Ray Bryant, Jerry Neal.

The record of the debate team as a whole was seventy-six wins, fifty-one losses, and fifty non-decisions. Our senior team won twenty-two debates and lost only nine. Again Central Valley's debaters brought acclaim to our school.

Back row: L. Thomas, D. Dickerman, V. Garrison, D. Aston, J. Nixon, B. Clay, Mr. Beard.

Second row: C. Dial, B. McDonald, M. Kimmel, A. Hurt.

Front row: J. Karstetter, M. Thomas.

HONOR SOCIETY

The Honor Society of Central Valley was organized in 1946. The members are chosen for their scholarship, character, leadership, and service in the school.

With the help of Mrs. Eastburn, their advisor, the officers: President, Joan Morrison; Vice-president, Ellen Wilson; and Secretary, Mary Thomas, helped to complete another successful year.

Back row: JoAnn Cockings, Doris Williams, Mary Lou Tesarik, Darlene Risdon, Beverly McDonald, M. Kimmel, D. Hensel, B. Rothrock, J. Ruark, C. Dial.

OFFICE STAFF

Each year a group of girls is chosen by the commercial instructor to work in the office. They are chosen for their ability to answer the phone intelligently and on their dependability.

The girls' main duties are helping Betty Frederick in any way they can and recording daily absences.

This year we enjoyed two parties in the library—one at Christmas, the other on Easter.

Back row: R. Frederick, B. Ulrich, M. Asbury, E. Wilson, B. Morrow, J. Morrison, J. Greeves, D. Moore.

Front row: Mrs. Bannen, D. Parkinson, J. Ruark, R. Talarico, J. Wood, M. Bristol, B. Frederick.

F. H. A.

The F. H. A. is an organization of girls who are planning either to major or minor in Home Economics. During the year they put on many successful projects, such as cake and candy sales, and cafeterias. From the money they made, they sent two girls with Mrs. Puryear to the convention in Ellensburg.

Last January they had a banquet in honor of the faculty. The girls did all the work in preparation of the meal and the entertainment. The teachers all agreed that they were entertained royally.

Back row: Mrs. Puryear, L. Humbert, J. Greeves, M. L. Sampson, D. Fiegel, R. L. Keller, J. Allen, M. Nelson.

F. F. A.

The F. F. A. is a very active organization at Central Valley, and it plays an important part in the life of each boy who belongs to it. He learns things that will be valuable to him all of his life. He is taught how to take the best care of crops and livestock. They raise their own livestock, enter it in 4-H shows, and sell it to the highest bidder.

So you can see, belonging to the F. F. A. is profitable in more ways than one.

Back row: G. Tanner, R. Perry, D. Beck, J. Matlack, B. Skeie, W. Bramer, J. Ellingson, Mr. Emery, Mr. Fritz, L. Lundy, D. Courchaine, J. Sanders, F. Brecto, J. Beal.

FOOTBALL

Although we had only one first stringer back from the '47" squad, the Central Valley Bears gave some of the most powerful teams in the season the battle of their lives. Coach Hansen had a very inexperienced, but determined team to work with and he is looking forward to a successful team next year, with eight starters coming back, plus plenty of reserves.

Things to Remember	Box Score			Coaches
KEITH JOHNSON'S opening touchdown run against W. V.	C.V.— 7	Gonzaga	19	A SQUAD
	C.V.— 0	Lewiston	12	Sig Hansen
	C.V.—20	West Valley	14	George Derr
RANNIGER'S runs that were always called back.	C.V.— 0	Walla Walla	24
	C.V.—13	West Valley	13	B SQUAD
	C.V.—13	Clarkston	7	Jack Thacker
CLEVELAND'S eighty yard run against Wenatchee.	C.V.—14	Pullman	18
	C.V.—12	Wenatchee	21	FROSH
	C.V.— 6	Chewelah	0	Ray Thacker

As the box score shows, C.V. was never beaten badly; the boys tried hard at all times. They had the determination and nerve, but lacked the all important factor: Experience. The highlights of their season were probably not the games that they won, but the impressive scores that they ran up against Wenatchee and Gonzaga, two of the top teams of the state. We were able to outgain both of these teams, but not outscore them. Here's wishing Coach Hansen and his players successful seasons in the years to come.

C.V.....56	Wapato	55
C.V.....48	Everett	43
C.V.....50	Walla Walla ...	52

We think that by winning 85 per cent of their games and also the district championship, along with 8th place at the state tourney, the C.V. Basketball team has proved itself a success. Through the preseason games, the regular league play, and finally the state tournament, they have compiled an excellent record of 23 wins in 27 games.

Coach Thacker rolled up his sleeves last fall and prepared to mold a team out of 3 returning lettermen and a fine crop of "B" squaders. He brought them all the way to the State Tourney and showed our city cousins and many powerful teams throughout the state just what teamwork and fighting spirit are at Central Valley.

The Bears turned in three of their best games at Cheney, to win the district championship, and the privilege to go to the state. They played good defensive and offensive ball, which enabled them to down Omak, Clarkston and Walla Walla, one, two, three in a row, turning in their best defensive game against Walla Walla.

This earned the Bears a shot at the State Tourney. At Seattle the Bears gave a fine account of themselves in winning 2 of the 4 games they played to place 8th. (Their loose defense cost the C.V. team the first game with Bellarmine of Tacoma, and possibly the Tourney.) They went on to win their next two games from Wapato and Everett and then lost a heart-breaker to Walla Walla 52 to 50 to take 8th place in the tournament and wind up one of the most successful seasons ever had at Central Valley.

COACH HANSEN SAYS:

"For when the One Great Scorer comes to write against your name, He writes not that you won or lost—but how you played the game."

"Such is our feeling at Central Valley toward sports. From them we get physical and spiritual growth. From them we learn to cooperate, to work and play together. From them we learn to appreciate ability and talent in others. In short from them we learn to play the game of life. In it we will be censured for our shortcomings, rewarded for our achievements, and will get our only real pleasure from the satisfaction of a job well done."

BASEBALL

The boys are making a grand show despite the lack of veteran players. Jim Rose is the only senior on the team this year. Next spring the team should really make a showing.

TRACK

The center of activity after school and sixth period is the football field which also serves as a track. Always a main attraction is the C.V. Relays which will be run May 23 this year. The boys have really worked hard to get in shape for this event. Their schedule this year has been:

W.S.C. Invitational, finishing 3rd; Banana Belt Relay, finishing 2nd; C.V. Invitational, finishing 1st; Wenatchee Apple Blossom Track Meet, finishing 3rd.

A new record was set by C.V. in the Apple Blossom Relay.

Meets to be held are: County, District, State, and C.V. Relays.

BOXING

The smokers added much to our season of sport this year. There was only one thing wrong—there would have been a lot more bouts scheduled and a lot more boys out to help back up our fighting Bears.

Darrell Calkins, Clifford Scott, Bob Rooks, Rodney Hahn, Dave Powell.

BADMINTON

The badminton team has covered itself with glory by taking first place in girls' doubles in the city, county, Inland Empire, and state tournaments, first place in boys' doubles in the city tournament, and first place in boys' singles in the Inland Empire Event. The badminton team also tied with West Valley in winning the Inland Empire Tournament trophy.

Back row: Dick Aston, Ernest Craft, Joanne Johnson, Ellen Wilson, Herb McIntosh, Howard Mahan, Bob Oliver, Gust Kallas, Ronnie Mellom, Shirley Thiel, Sally Daniels, Ralph Gribbin.

TENNIS

The Boys' and Girls' tennis teams combined to win the county tennis tournament with a total of 47 points.

In class A competition Central Valley scored first in girls' singles, and mixed doubles, and placed second in boys' singles and doubles and girls' doubles.

Central Valley scored three class B seconds, girls' doubles, boys' singles, and mixed doubles. The first and second place winners in class A will play in the Northeast District Tournament.

BOYS' TENNIS TEAM

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The girls' basketball team brought home the county championship by defeating Cheney 22-3, West Valley 13-11, Rockford 16-13, and Fairfield 11-0. Due to the fact that only two players of the championship team are graduating this year, we should retain the title next year.

Back row: Sally Daniels, Donnal Rowland—Manager, Elaine Weeks, Miss Ross, Doris Hensel, Pat Smith, Roberta Bacon, Eloise Lundeen.

VOLLEYBALL

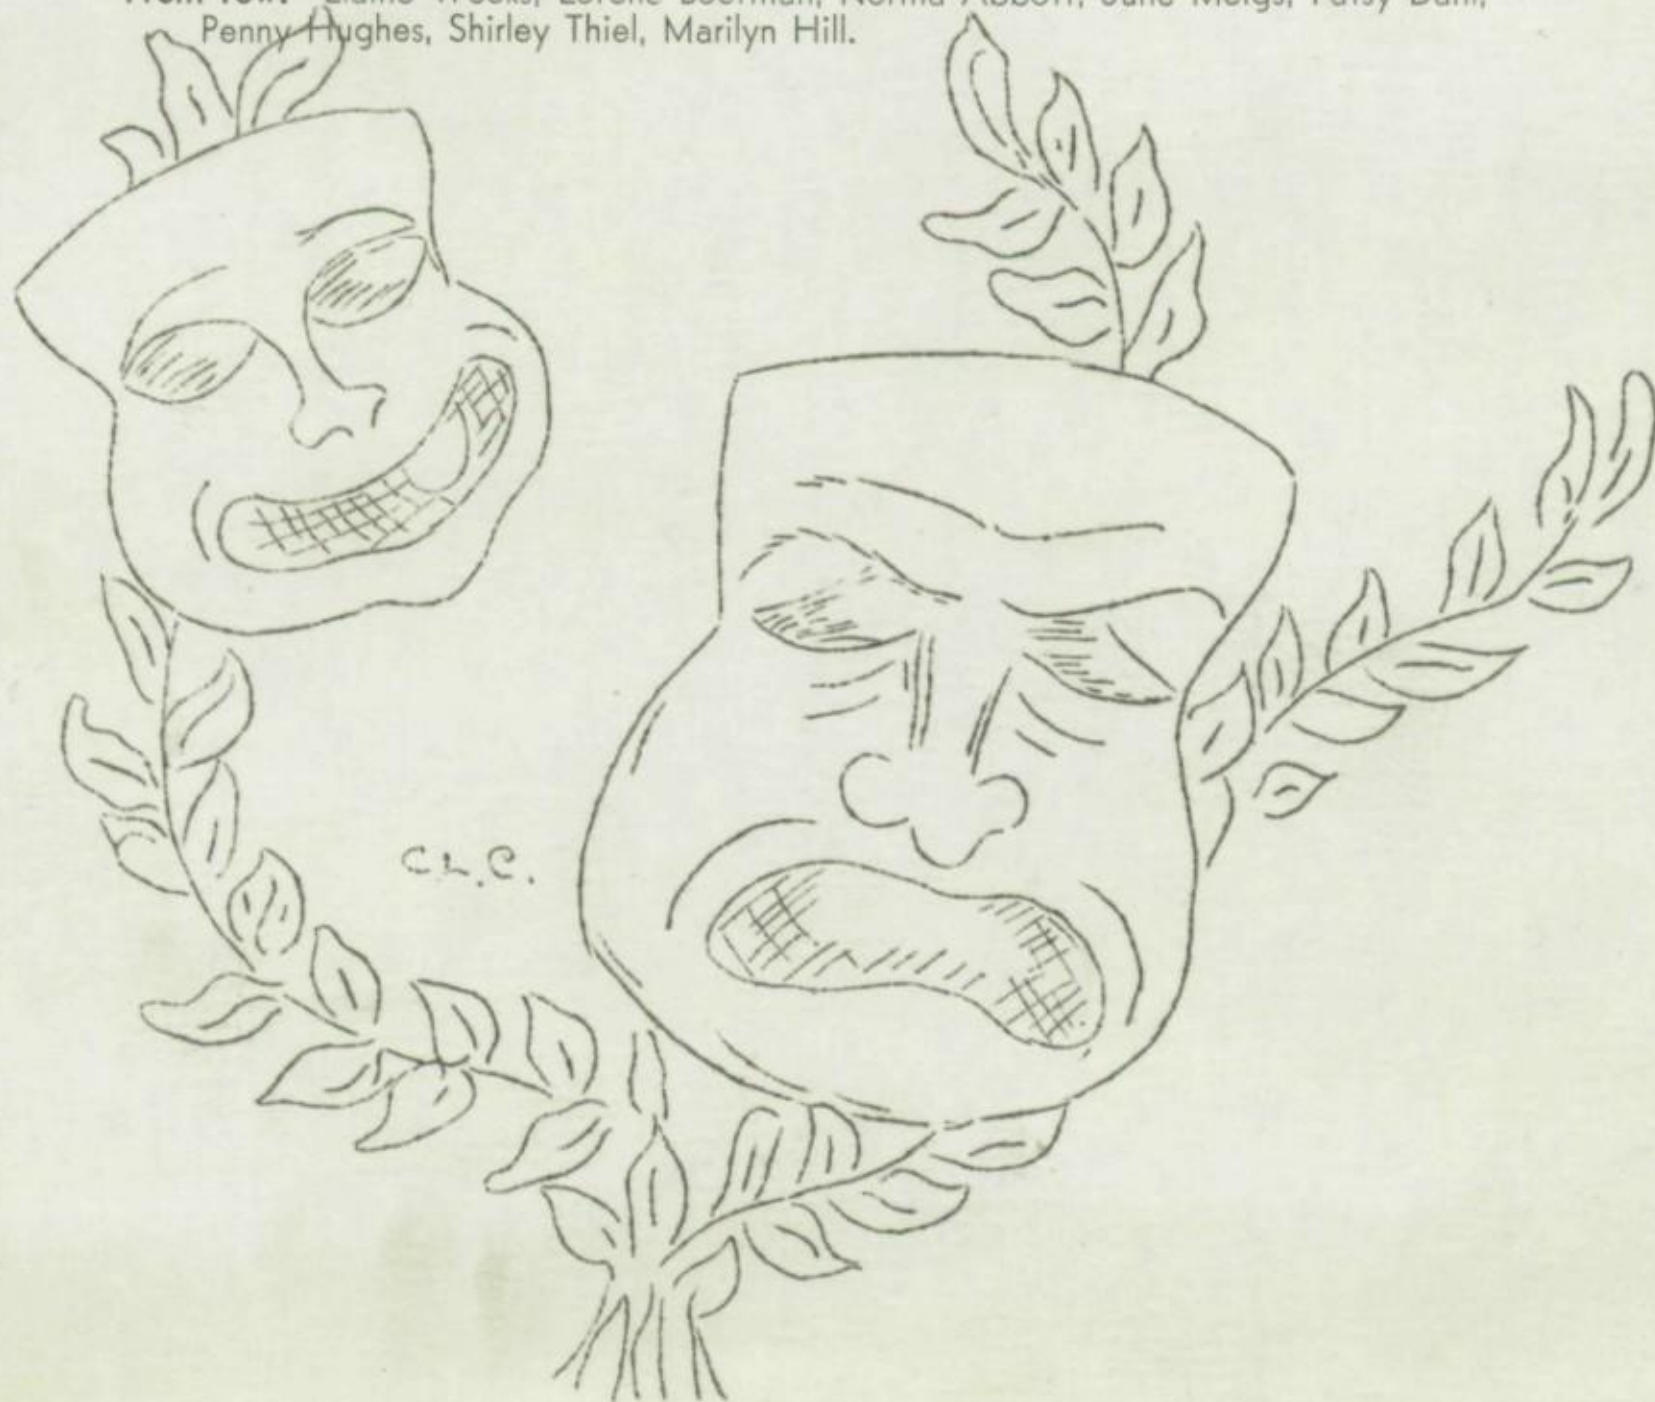

The volleyball team started the season by defeating Otis Orchards, then lost its next game to West Valley. The last event entered was the losers' tournament, won by the Central Valley team on our own court.

Back row: Joan Hackney, Joan Stout, Beverly Nelson, Betty Krogness, Barbara Ziegler, Carolyn Torrey, Nancy Dutton, Donnelle Howlett, Shirley Dahlen, Mariane Halverson, JoAnn Gibson.

Third row: El Louise Branchley, Janet Smith, Jane Stuart, Barbara Peterson, Paula Abbott, Bonnie Jean White, Donna Rowland, Sadie Chalich, Barbara Cheney, Carol Ingalls, Miss Ross.
